

Little Farmers

"The Big Red Barn"

April 2010

Rutledge-Wilson Farm

Do you know who lives inside the Big Red Barn? Little Farmers will not only learn about the animals that can be found on a farm, but they will also receive weekly visits from a different hairy or feathered friend. Each week, participants will learn about a different animal found in the big red barn through fun stories, activities, crafts, and up close animal interactions.
