GREEN THUMBS CAMP

Let's get outside and test out our "green thumbs!" This week we will learn where our food comes from through hands-on experiences, games, and crafts as well as plant our own garden. We will also spend time with our animals and share some garden treats with them.

June 8-12 • 9 a.m.-3 p.m.
Optional before- and after- camp childcare

HAPPY TRAILS CAMP

Howdy partner! Learn all about the cowboy way of life as we hit the trail on this summer adventure. We will see why horses are important and what makes them so special. Rutledge-Wilson Farm is home to miniature horses, which are just the right size for our campers.

June 22-26 • 9 a.m.-3 p.m.
Optional before- and after- camp childcare

ANIMALS AND ART CAMP: Let our animals help bring your creative side out here on the farm! Each day will be filled with lessons on farm animals and wildlife as well as art projects centered around them. Painting clothes encouraged!

July 13-17 • 9 a.m.-3 p.m.
Optional before- and after- camp childcare

Camps for ages 8-9 yrs.

FUTURE FARMERS CAMP

Dream of living life down on the farm? Come try it at our Rutledge-Wilson Farm! We will see how farmers live from day to day and the impact is having on our environment. Lessons will center around the barnyard in addition to conservation practices.

June 15-19 • 9 a.m.-3 p.m.
Optional before- and after- camp childcare

Camps for ages 10-12 yrs.

BEST IN SHOW CAMP

During the summer, many farmers enjoy displaying their animals at summer fairs. Learn firsthand how to prepare and train an animal for a fair that we will have at the end of the week.

July 27-31 • 9 a.m.-3 p.m.
Optional before- and after- camp childcare
